

ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS FORUM

IN GLOBAL PEACE CONVENTION 2017

February 28 – March 02, 2017

WHAT IS ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS FORUM (EBF)

Does Business promote Peace or War? A question that had Economists and Historians argue what causes what! Does business provide fuel for the war or paves way for peace through economic equality? What happened to theories such as Capitalism, Socialism, and Communism? Economic and Business Forum 2017 will have leaders from across the world discussing how Business and Economy contribute to Global Peace.

Date: February 28 – March 2, 2017

Venue: Marriott Hotel, Pasay City, Metro Manila

SECURE YOUR SEATS

Call: (632) 527 5610 to 11

Mail: chamberphilislands@gmail.com

Website:

<https://www.globalpeace.org/content/global-peace-business-economic-forum>

Sponsorship Form
Attendee Form

ENTREPRENEURSHIP: KEY TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT & POVERTY REDUCTION

First topic on 28 February 2017 examines the role of governments in promoting and facilitating the development and protection of an entrepreneurial environment for sustainable commerce and industry.

Our Speakers on Entrepreneurship

MS. OLIVIA LIMPE-AW

President, Destileria Limtuaco and Co.,
Vice President, CCPI

President of the oldest distillery and top exporter of distilled spirits this top notch leader in the Philippine liquor industry shares her experiences on the value of Entrepreneurship.

MR. JOHNLU KOA

Founder and CEO of The French Baker

An entrepreneur par excellence, this self-taught baker, ventured into French Baking in 1989 and now enjoys the dominant market share for over 25 years in the country. An “Outstanding Young Filipinos” and one of the 500 Great Asians of the 21st Century he shares his learnings.

TAN SRI LEE KIM YEW

Founder/Chairman, The Mines Resort Bhd and Country Heights Holdings Bhd and Co-Chairman, Malaysia-China Business Council, Honorary Chairman Of Young Entrepreneurs

Having donated generously for various causes, he built the businesses into the successful and lucrative establishments that they are now through sheer hardwork.

This session also highlights the entrepreneur’s role in finding and providing solutions to problems, creating jobs, and alleviating poverty.